

Germany and Sweden in times of global migration movements

PROGRAM

Seminar-Nr.: 1107	From March 16th through March 18th 2018
Arrival on	Friday, March 16th 2018 Check-In: 5 - 5.30 pm Dinner: 6 pm
Friday 6.45 pm	Adress of welcome through Vollmar-Akademie with information about your stay
7 - 9.30 pm	introduction of participants and speakers details about the program contentual and terminological foundation of contemporary migration movements; definition of important terms and creation of a common basis for discussion presentation with subsequent round of questions speaker: Hannah Tischmann
Saturday 9 am - 12.30 pm	Migration and Asylum policies in Germany and Sweden Up-to-Date numbers and development presentation speaker: Hannah Tischmann
3 - 4.30 pm	Role-model Sweden? A German Perspektive on the Swedish Migration policy. presentation with subsequent round of questions Referent: Niels Stöber (angefragt)
4.30 - 6 pm	„Large-scale challenge“? A review of societal development in Sweden from an inner perspective. presentation with subsequent round of questions Referent: Tino Sanandji (angefragt)

7 - 9 pm „Welcome-Policy“ vs. shut borders? Comparative discussion on both countries about pros, cons, problems, solutions, strategies and opportunities.
open panel
speakers: Hannah Tischmann, Niels Stöber (requested) and Tino Sanandji (requested)

Sunday

9 - 9.15 am political education today: short information about the structures and financing of the house the seminar takes place in

9.15 - 11 am Building Bridges I Possible solutions for a coordinated German-Swedish Migration policy within the EU presentation with subsequent discussion
speaker: Birgit Schmitz-Lenders (requested)

11 am - 12 pm Building Bridges II
How can we as a society with cultural means absorb/ remediate political (mal)developments?
presentation with subsequent discussion
speaker: Hannah Tischmann

12 - 12.30 pm open questions, final discussion, seminar evaluation departure after lunch

Course instructor: Hannah Tischmann, Institute for European and komparative linguistics and literature, University of Vienna

Speaker: Niels Stöber (requested), research assistant, Stockholm
Tino Sanandj (requested), born in Teheran and raised in Sweden, author and economist, Stockholm
Birgit Schmitz-Lenders (requested), managing director of the European Academy in Bavaria, Munich
Bianca Lipanská (requested), interpreter, Prague

Contact person: Daniel Urban, educational management, Georg-von-Vollmar-Akademie e.V.

participation fee: 99,00€
49,50€ for participants from Sweden (since more expensive travelling costs) and for students, interns, trainees and unemployed educational objective: Contemplation about German, Swedish and European migration policies in the light of current developments as well as thoughtful reflection about arising problems and possible solution strategies; getting to know the latest expertise and assessments from Germany and Sweden target group and language: The whole seminar will be simulatenously interpreted in German and Swedish. The seminar is designed to be carried through bi-national and thus adresses especially participants from Sweden and Germany. In addition to that everybody interested in the topic is admitted to the seminar. It is generally accessible and promoted via digital and print.

meal times:

8 - 9 am	breakfast
12.30 pm (Sunday: 12.00 pm)	lunch and coffee
6 pm	dinner

Check-out: Sunday, 9 am